20. Canvassing in any form shall be a disqualification.

21. Any eligibility condition, relaxation, exemption, benefit, procedure or claim not expressly provided in this advertisement or under the applicable rules shall not be admissible.

22. AIIMS New Delhi is only the examination conducting body for NORCET. Allocation, wherever made by AIIMS New Delhi, shall be based on merit, eligibility claimed by the candidate, choices/preferences exercised by the candidate and vacancies reported by the respective participating AIIMS/Institute/Hospital. After selection/allocation, place of posting, joining, service conditions, seniority, transfer, probation and all other service-related matters shall be governed by the rules and decision of the respective participating AIIMS/Institute/Hospital. AIIMS New Delhi shall not be responsible for matters relating to recruitment rules, relaxation, document verification, joining, withdrawal/change of vacancies or any other post-allocation service matter of the respective participating AIIMS/Institute/Hospital.

23. In view of the large number of applicants, detailed scrutiny of eligibility conditions such as educational qualification, age, experience, registration, category certificate, PwBD suitability, NOC and other documents may not be undertaken before the Recruitment Examination. Applications shall be accepted and admit cards shall be issued provisionally on the basis of information, declarations and claims made by the candidate in the online application form without any verification. Issue of admit card or permission to appear in the examination shall not be treated as acceptance of eligibility, category, reservation claim, age relaxation, experience, qualification, NOC or any other claim made by the candidate.

24. Mention of category, sub-category, PwBD status or any other claim in the application form, application status, admit card, score card, result or any communication shall not by itself confer any right to reservation, relaxation, allocation or appointment. Such claim shall be subject to production and verification of valid certificate/document in the prescribed format within the notified time and to satisfaction of the respective competent authority.

25. Candidates are strongly advised to carefully examine this advertisement and the applicable Recruitment Rules of the respective participating AIIMS/Institute/Hospital, particularly with regard to essential qualification, age limit, experience, registration, category, PwBD suitability, NOC and other requirements, and satisfy themselves that they fulfil all eligibility conditions before applying.

26. If at any stage of the recruitment process, including after examination, result, allocation, document verification, joining or appointment, it is found that a candidate does not fulfil the prescribed qualification, experience, age, registration, category, NOC or any other eligibility condition, or that any information, declaration, document or claim submitted by the candidate is incorrect, false, misleading, unsubstantiated, invalid or suppressed, his/her candidature/allocation/appointment shall be liable to be cancelled and the allocated seat/post, if any, shall be forfeited as per rules.

27. If a candidate has claimed any reservation, relaxation or benefit under SC/ST/OBC/EWS/PwBD or any other category and fails to produce a valid certificate/document in the prescribed format within the notified time, the concerned claim shall not be considered and the candidature/allocation may be cancelled as per applicable rules. No claim over any seat/post shall be entertained on the basis of an invalid, expired, incorrect or non-produced certificate.

28. Mere submission of application, acceptance of application status, issue of admit card, appearance in examination, qualifying the examination, inclusion in merit list, publication of score or provisional allocation shall not confer any right to appointment. Appointment shall be subject to verification of eligibility, documents, certificates, identity, character and antecedents, medical fitness/suitability and satisfaction of the respective competent authority. The decision of the respective AIIMS/participating Institute/Hospital shall be final.

29. Any appointment shall be subject to identity verification from various sources, including biometric verification with biometric data captured during the examination and details uploaded in the online application form. In case of failure in identity verification, mismatch of identity/biometric data, or absence/refusal of the candidate to participate in identity verification, the candidature/appointment shall be liable to be cancelled and further action may be taken as per rules, including debarment from examinations.

30. If a candidate, after appointment, is found unsuitable or not fit for the post during probation, the respective AIIMS/Institute/Hospital may take action, including termination/cancellation of appointment, as per applicable rules.
